

Quality Policy

We at Revalyu Recycling (India) Limited, engaged in manufacturing and supply of 100% recycled polyester Products from post-consumer PET bottles, are committed to continually improve the quality of our products and services through innovation, technology upgradation and process improvements thereby ensuring we become market leaders and attain the highest level of customer satisfaction.

We will achieve this by means of:

- Careful listening to the voice of all interested parties including stakeholders, customers, market intelligence etc. to develop the Quality Management System
- Complying to all applicable obligations including legal
- Benchmarking against the market leaders
- Inculcating the best practices of the industry
- Implementing all set policies, procedures and guidelines
- Engaging the employees for active participation in quality drive
- Regularly monitoring QMS for enhancing the quality performance

In our relentless pursuit of excellence, we aim to continually improve our quality performance to supply superior, sustainable products and services.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Makarand Kulkarni".

Makarand Kulkarni

Date: 22 September 2022

C.E.O & Whole time Director

*This policy is communicated in organization & made available to the stakeholders on demand.